Children must be taught how to think, not what to think
We worry about what a child will become "tomorrow", yet we forget that he is someone today
Children are not things to be molded, but are people to be unfolded
Each day of our lives we make deposits in the memory banks of our children.
It is easier to build strong children than to repair broken men
Children need models rather than critics
Children have never been very good at listening to their elders, but they have never failed to imitate themChildren are our most valuable resource
